

Holy Week Services Planned by Local Churches

Pastors to Tell Of Resurrection

Impressive ceremonies will climax both Lent and Holy Week observances which have been in progress at Torrance churches throughout the past few days.

All over Torrance and throughout the world, Christian people will join in the chorus of "He arose! Christ is risen from the dead!"

Services to be held at churches throughout the Torrance area are included on these pages. The HERALD joins with all the citizens in urging everyone to attend church this Sunday.

First Methodist

Easter morning worship services will be held at 8, 9, 10 and 11 a.m. in the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado. Rev. John L. Taylor, minister of the church, will deliver the sermon, "Experience a Higher Way," at all four services.

The junior and intermediate choirs will sing at the early service, presenting as anthems "O Sons and Daughters," "In Joseph's Lovely Garden" and "Easter Praise." Paula Harter and Sally Wyrick will be soloists. The Senior-Wesley and Chancel choirs will lead in worship at the other services. They will sing "Easter In-Troit," "As It Began to Dawn" and "By Early Morning Light." Soloists will include Eva Brundin, Mary Hutchison, Bonnie Kail and Claire McCown.

At a special service to be held at 3 p.m. the sacrament of infant baptism will be administered by Rev. John Taylor and Rev. Donald Shelby. The church is also joining in a traditional Easter breakfast to be served at 6:45 following the sunrise service.

Joseph Clokey's cantata, "Adoramus Te," will be the choral work to be presented by the ministry of music of the church Good Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. The cantata combines the Passion Story of Jesus with elements of the liturgy of Christendom.

Choirs participating in the presentation will be the Senior-Wesley and the Chancel, under the direction of Rev. Donald Shelby. Soloists will include Sally Bridgeman, alto; Harold Holmes, tenor; Charlotte McComas, Claire McCown and Delyna Smith, sopranos. Ruth White will be at the organ.

Following the choral presentation, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in a traditional candlelight setting. The church will be decorated with candle-labra fashioned from a design used in European cathedrals.

At a site in Rolling Hills, on Crest Rd., which overlooks the South Bay area, the church will hold its annual Easter sunrise service this Sunday at 5:30 a.m.

A committee from the youth division of the church, under the direction of Marvin Hiebert, in charge of the event, have extended an invitation to all. Those who wish to attend are asked to gather in front of the church, 1551 El Prado, at 5 a.m. All cars will then move in a caravan to the site.

Rev. Donald Shelby, associate minister of the church, will deliver the sermon entitled, "Another Presence." Music will be furnished by Misses Jane Moffatt and Delyna Smith, who will sing the traditional Spanish Easter carol, "In Joseph's Lovely Garden." Other youth who are participating are Pat King and Michael Mullen.

In case of inclement weather the service will be held in the sanctuary of the church.

Southwest Christian

The Southwest Christian Church and Sunday school will meet jointly at 10 a.m. Sunday in an unusual session at the church house, 25512 Walnut St., Lomita.

A program by children and young people's classes will precede communion and the sermon, in a shortened session. Rev. G. Roland Bond, pastor, has chosen "Empty Tombs and Overflowing Hearts" as his topic.

This is also the final day of the pre-Easter contest in the Sunday school. Good progress has been made and it is hoped that the goal for Easter Sunday will be exceeded. No evening meetings are scheduled for this day.

South Bay Baptist

An Easter musicale will be presented by the choir of the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, at the Sunday evening worship hour at 7:30.

The pastor, Dr. J. C. Brumfield, also will bring a short message on "The Living Savior." The public is invited.

Speaking at duplicate morning worship services at 9:45 and 11, Dr. Brumfield has chosen the Easter message, "Christ Is Risen." The choir will assist at both services singing "Open the Gates of the Temple" and "Alleluia, Christ Is Risen." Mrs. Erling Fredrickson is the director. A modern crib-nursery is available during all worship services.

Sunday school classes meet at 8:30 a.m. for children from the fourth grade and those through college age. An auxiliary class for toddlers and others will be available this Sunday at this hour. Classes meeting at 9:45 are for toddlers through kindergarten age and for the adult classes. Sunday school at 11 is for all children up through the third grade.

The Baptist Youth Fellowship for junior, senior high and college age meets at 6:30. Pastor's class on church membership meets the same hour in the study.

Bible study on the "Book of Ephesians" and prayer meeting is set Wednesday evening at 7:30. Auditions for membership in the youth choir will be held following the prayer service.

The adult choir rehearsal on Thursday evening at 7:30 completes the church activities for the week.

First Christian

The Easter section of Handel's immortal cantata "The Messiah" will be sung tonight (Maundy Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in the First Christian Church, 2930 Eldorado Ave., to prepare worshippers for the observance of Easter.

Immediately after the cantata the congregation will unite in the communion service.

The chancel choir under the direction of J. W. Davidson will present those parts of "The Messiah" which deal with the Easter story. Mrs. Eleanor Hanes will be organist and Mrs. Shirley Ronning, pianist.

Friday will be a day of prayer in the church with a prayer vigil held in the small chapel from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. From 12 to 1 p.m. the union Good Friday service will be conducted in the sanctuary with the youth choir and their director, Wesley Smith, presenting the special music.

There will be two identical services on Easter Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The chancel choir will sing both times. There will be nurseries and church school classes at the regular time.

Gardena Valley Ministerial Assn.

Easter sunrise services will be held at 6 a.m. at the Roadium Drive-In Theater, 2500 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., Gardena, sponsored by the Gardena Valley Ministerial Assn. The public is invited.

The Rev. Richard Wolf, pastor of First Methodist Church, will bring the Easter message, assisted in the interdenominational community service by ministers of various other local churches. Special music for the service will be provided by the famous Richard Wagner choral group via recording played through the facilities of the theater.

Moose Planning Church Carlift Easter Sunday

"Operation Easter Carlift," providing rides for persons who need a way to church Sunday, will be in full operation, according to Joseph Platt, civic affairs chairman of the Torrance Moose Lodge, which is sponsoring the project.

Free transportation will be offered by members of the Moose Lodge to persons who, because of sickness, disability, or other causes, would be unable to attend church.

Persons who need a ride may call FA 8-8666, FA 4-4465 or DA 6-6763.

St. Francis Episcopal

The Rt. Rev. Francis Eric Bloy, D.D., bishop of Los Angeles, will visit the parish of St. Francis Church, Palos Verdes Estates, on Easter Sunday, when he will be celebrating at the 11 a.m. Holy Communion service and preach the sermon.

April 21 will mark the ninth anniversary of his consecration as bishop. The rector of St. Francis, the Rev. Robert A. Tournigney, will assist the bishop at the 11 a.m. services and will himself be the celebrant at the choral eucharist at 7 a.m. and will preach the sermon. There will be another choral eucharist at 9 a.m. The children's Easter festival and mite-boxing gathering will be at 4 p.m.

A choir of 17 trained voices will present Gabriel Faure's "Requiem" on Good Friday evening at 8 p.m., directed by Norman P. Thompson Jr., M.A., organist and choir director. The program will last a half hour.

Three soloists will participate—Margaret Foss, soprano; Ed Rittenhouse, tenor, and David Hollier, baritone.

Alondra Park Methodist Church

Alondra Park Methodist Church will celebrate Easter in a new building which is being completed in construction just this week, according to the pastor, the Rev. Earl W. Isbell.

Seating will be available for over 400 persons at each of three services to be held at 9, 10 and 11 a.m. An acre of off-street parking also is available, reported the pastor.

The Easter sermon will present the topic, "Is There a God?"

"Easter," said Mr. Isbell, "is the Christian's triumphant answer to this great question." This topic will bring the last in a series of Lenten-Easter sermons on "Decisions of the Christian Life."

Four choirs will cooperate in bringing music for the Easter services, all of which will be under the direction of the Rev. Charles J. Bruesch, Jr., minister of music, and accompanied by Mrs. Harold LaCombe, organist.

John Stevens, tenor soloist, will sing "The Holy City" during the two later services. Hundreds of calla lilies will line the choir platform, arranged by Mrs. Robert Evans, flower chairman.

Sunday school, including nursery, will be held for all ages up through the sixth grade, or children's division, at each of the three hours of church services. These will be under the general supervision of Gene Spahr, children's division superintendent.

An Easter breakfast and devotional period will be held at 7:30 a.m. for all the youth of the church, sponsored by the Wesley (college age) Fellowship. The minister will speak briefly to the group at this time; there will be no Sunday school classes for youth on this Sunday.

Over 200 persons will be celebrating Easter for the first time as members of the Alondra Park Methodist Church. The Rev. Carl G. Bader, associate minister, under whose program of visitation most of these persons have been united with the church, will assist the pastor in conducting all services.

Union Rites Set On Good Friday

The annual union Good Friday service will be held this year in the First Christian Church, corner Maple and Eldorado Ave., from 12 noon until 1 p.m. on April 19.

Each year the Torrance Ministerial Assn. sponsors this service for people of all churches.

The speaker this year will be the Rev. H. Milton Sippel, minister of the First Christian Church. Assisting him will be the Rev. Walter M. Stanton of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church and president of the ministerial association; the Rev. John Taylor, of the First Methodist Church, and the Rev. Monrad Bergesen of Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The youth choir of the First Christian Church under the direction of Wesley Smith will present special music.

Religious Science

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science, Ruby St. and Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, Easter Sunday will discuss "Your Life Never Ends."

There will be two complete services. The first service will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the second will begin at 11 a.m. Double services for the children's church and Metateens will run concurrently and there will be a nursery for the very young children and infants under competent supervision.

A quarter hour meditation period precedes the church services with organ music by the church organist, Jean Rhodes.

Inspiration hour services are held on Wednesday at 1 p.m. Dr. Barnum's subject at this time will be "Faith Is the Substance." The public is invited.

Christian Science

The glorious power of atonement manifested in the resurrection of Christ Jesus is emphasized in the Easter Sunday Service of all the churches of the Christian Science denomination. The topic of the sermon is "Doctrine of Atonement."

A dramatic point in the lesson-sermon is the account of Jesus' appearing to Mary Magdalene on resurrection morning. As he awakened her from her grief, "Jesus saith unto her, . . . go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and to my God, and your God" (John 20:17).

"Glory be to God, and peace to the struggling hearts!" declares Mary Baker Eddy in a correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." The passage continues, "Christ hath rolled away the stone from the door of human hope and faith, and through the revelation and demonstration of life in God, hath elevated them to possible at-onement with the spiritual idea of man and his divine Principle, Love" (p. 45).

The Golden Text gives the words of the beloved apostle, John, "Herein is love, not that he loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins" (1 John 4:10).

First Lutheran

First Lutheran Church, Carson and Flower, will commemorate the Crucifixion of Christ with several worship services.

On Thursday evening at 7:30 holy communion will be celebrated to commemorate the Thursday evening before his death when Jesus instituted the Lord's Supper. On Friday evening at 7:30 there will be Good Friday worship services.

On Easter Sunday morning there will be four Easter worship services—sunrise services at 6 a.m., early worship service at 8 a.m., family worship service at 9:30 a.m., and late worship service at 11 a.m. There will be Sunday school for pre-school children only at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

The Easter messages will be given by Rev. Paul C. Wenske, pastor of First Lutheran, and by Donald Johnson, student intern. Music will be furnished by the three choirs—the junior, youth, and senior. The choirs are directed by Mrs. Paul Wenske and Elmer Winter.

St. James Catholic

Holy Thursday services scheduled today at St. James Catholic Church, 415 Vincent St., Redondo Beach, will begin at 8 a.m. with a Low Mass.

Another Low Mass will be held at 6:30 p.m., with a Solemn High Mass and procession at 8 p.m. Adorations of the Blessed Sacrament by the Holy Name Society will be from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m., while other parish societies will take part from 6 a.m. to 12 noon.

A Liturgical service is planned tomorrow from 12 to 3 p.m., followed by a Calvary service.

Confessions will be heard from 10 to 12, 3:30 to 5:30 and 7:30 to 8:30 on Holy Saturday. Easter Vigil services will be held at 10:30 p.m., followed by the Easter Vigil Midnight Mass.

High Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. Sunday, with a Solemn High Mass and benediction at 12:15 p.m. Low Masses will be at 6, 7, 8, 10, 10:45 and 11:30.

Revival Tabernacle

Special services for this Easter week end have been planned at Revival Tabernacle, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., Harbor City, according to Pastor W. F. Martin.

A Good Friday service at 7:30 p.m. will feature Evangelist and Mrs. Watson Argue Jr. of Seattle, Wash. In the service Evangelist Argue will present a children's sunshine choir who will sing a number of selected action choruses. His sermon entitled "Power in the Blood" will be illustrated with chemicals.

Easter Sunday services commence with a sunrise service at the church. At 9:45 a.m. the Sunday school is expecting to break their record of 311. Special awards will be given to those bringing the most visitors. Pastor Martin will be speaking at the morning worship service at 11 a.m.

The 7:30 p.m. service will conclude a two-week revival with the Argues. Along with special music, the service will be highlighted by an illustrated message entitled "The Price of a Boy." In this message the evangelist will auction off a boy from the audience.

South Bay Church of God

The South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon Ave., will hold an Easter cantata coupled with a series of "Living Reproductions of Religious Masterpieces" at the church Easter evening at 7:30 p.m.

The cantata is entitled "The Cross Triumphant" and was composed by Ira B. Wilson. As the choir sings, the curtains will open at various times showing a living picture that will portray the story that the choir is singing about.

All are invited to attend this service as well as the other services of the day which are as follows: morning worship at 9:30 and 11 a.m.; Sunday school at 9:30; youth services at 6:30 p.m., and the cantata, "The Cross Triumphant," at 7:30 p.m.

The pastor, Rev. Clifford Tierney, cautioned those who plan to attend to arrive early as seating is limited.

Lomita Missionary

The adult choir of the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd., will present an Easter cantata, "The Saviour Lives" by Lillenas on Easter Sunday afternoon at 4:30. Ronald Ferguson directs the choir.

Mrs. Vernon Rose is pianist and Mrs. Ronald Ferguson the organist for the cantata.

Also included in the program will be two solos, "Open the Gates of the Temple," sung by Mrs. Roy Whittum, and "The Holy City," sung by Delbert Ferguson.
